THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

MONDAY, January 30th, 1744. [Numb. 514.]

LONDON, Sept. 27.

LAST Thurſday an Experiment for deſtroying Vermin was tried on board the Squirrel Man of War in Deptford-Dock, before a great Number of Merchants and Owners of Ships; the Veſſel was empty excepting Ballaſt, on it was laid a large Quantity of Brimſtone, Straw, and other Combuſtibles, which being ſet on Fire, the Air-Holes were then immediately ſtopp'd, and ſoon after open'd again, when on going into the Hold they found upwards of 500 Rats that had been ſuffocated in a few Minutes.

September 29. The Reaſon aſſigned at Franckfort for M. Seckendorff's reſigning, is, that the Imperial Army will be ſhortly joined by foreign Auxiliaries, and a General who will have the ſole Command.

By the Treaty lately concluded between France, Spain, and Naples, the latter is to receive 5,000,000 Pieces of Eight annually during the War, and to furniſh only 12,000 Foot and 6000 Horſe.

The Sardinian Ambaſſador at the Court of France, has been lately treated in ſuch a Manner, that he has written to the King, his Maſter, to deſire that he may be recall'd.

Some Letters from Bruſſels ſay, that the Government has already taken the neceſſary Precautions for adjuſting to the Satisfaction of their Officers, the Winter Quarters of the Britiſh Troops, in caſe they ſhould take them in thoſe Provinces.

The People at Woolwich belonging to the Train of Artillery, work inceſſantly Night and Day at the Elaboratory, in preparing and filling a large Magazine of Cartouches & Bomb-ſhells, that are ſhortly to be employed on ſome extraordinary Expedition.

Two thouſand Puncheons of Biſcuit are ordered to be ſhipp'd directly, for the Service of the Fleet under Admiral Matthews, in the Mediterranean.

The old St. Joſeph, taken from the Spaniards by a Ship from Admiral Haddock's Squadron, is fitting out by the Merchants for a Privateer, and will carry fifty-two Guns, and three hundred and fifty Men, and is now call'd the Fame.

The Protections granted to the Men belonging to this little Squadron are ſo ſtrong, that no Man of War, &c. has any power to impreſs them.

October 1. The Board of Ordnance has given Orders for the caſting of 1000 Braſs Cannon at Woolwich, to ſupply the Firſt and ſecond Rate Men of War.

Yeſterday the Commiſſioners of the Victualling-Office contracted for 8000 Quarters of Wheat, and 1000 Quarters of Biſcuit Meal, for the Service of his Majeſty's Navy.

Next Tueſday will be ſhipp'd at Woolwich, for the Service of the Queen of Hungary, five Tuns of Gunpowder, and ſix Ton Weight of Leaden Bullets.

Letters from Leghorn of 21ſt of September ſay, that the Plague ſpreads very much in Calabria, ſo that they have been obliged to draw a fifth Line in the Kingdom of Naples. The Plague has alſo extended itſelf to the Iſland of Cephalonia and St. Maur, belonging to the Venetians, where it makes great Ravage.

October 4. Prince Lobkowitz is on the Point of executing a Project of very great Importance in Italy; and to enable him to act there more effectually, it has been reſolved to ſend him a Reinforcement of ſome thouſand Men from Bavaria, as ſoon as Ingoldſtadt is ſurrendered, under the Command of General Brown, who is now attending his Britannick Majeſty at Spire.

His Excellency General Oglethorpe, has brought over in his ſhip one of the Indian Chiefs, or Kings, which border upon Georgia.

Laſt Week eleven young Women, who all liv'd in one Court at the Hermitage, were married to eleven of the ſailors belonging to the Squirrel Man of War, who lately received a conſiderable ſum each, as Prize Money; on which Account there has been a continual ſcene of Mirth in that Quarter.

October 8. The Brother of the Baſhaw of Tangier, with his 4 ſons and 42 Moors, have lately taken Refuge in Gibraltar, and brought with them 2,000,000 in Gold.

About 300 Huſſars who were marching to join Col. Mentzel, having Information of a grand Convoy of Oxen going to Marſhal Noailles's Army, under an Eſcort of 2000 Men, they reſolved to attack it, and having with them a compleat ſet of Trumpets for their whole Corps, they ſounded them as they approached, on which the French, ſuppoſing them to be a great Body of Horſe, retired precipitately, and abandoned 300 fat Oxen.

Yeſterday the Northumberland, ſaid to be the largeſt 70-Gun Ship in the Navy, lately rebuilt at Woolwich, was launched ched in the Preſence of ſeveral Officers of the Navy, and many Perſons of Diſtinction; the Command of her is given to Capt. Watſon, an experienced Officer.

By Letters from Ireland we have Advice, that they are very buſy in repairing all the Fortifications in that Kingdom, for which Purpoſe a great Number of proper Ordnance were ordered ſome Time ago.

October 11. The Publick may be aſſur'd, that the Campaign on the Rhine is at an End, and that the Army is in full March back to re-croſs the Rhine, in order (as 'tis tho't) to take up Winter-Quarters in Flanders.

According to Letters from Hamburgh, his Daniſh Majeſty has cauſed ſix Propoſitions to be delivered to Count Teſſin and deſired him immediately to tranſmit them to Stockholm, where, if they were complied with, he was content they ſhou'd ſerve as the Grounds of a Definitive Treaty, for adjuſting all his Pretenſions to the Houſe of Holſtein.

They write from Cologn, that they ſee with Amazement the Pains taken and the Money ſpent to recruit and reinforce the Imperial Army, whence it is apprehended that ſome new Diſturbances will break out in Germany.

Col Mentzel, who has already made himſelf famous by ſo many Exploits, is preparing to live all this Winter at the Expence of the French: And, for that Purpoſe, has actually levied a Corps of Hunters in Franconia, Saxony, and Bohemia, in order to aſſiſt his Huſſars, and to eſcort the Plunder, Baggage, and Ammunition.
